Challenges lead the narrative on top industries

While the average tone on the top five industries is dominantly negative, sentiment on the airline and the banking industry has been the most critical. Aspects such as financial results growth, products and innovation, have helped enhance sentiment on the IT industry.

